To the Referee:

The candidate named above is applying to the Graduate Program in English at the University of Missouri-Columbia. We would appreciate an appraisal of the candidate's intellectual ability, potential as a scholar, and any other matters which might touch on his or her capacity to excel in a graduate program in English. Since most graduate students teach while at MU, we would also appreciate your observations on the candidate's ability to communicate in spoken and written English. Please note whether or not the candidate has waived the right to inspect this letter. Return your letter (attach additional pages if necessary) to
