you're most proud of? Want to share it with a wider audience and have a chance to win $300?

Submit it for the Mahan Award!

We invite first-year students to submit a writing project

We're seeking well-crafted writing that demonstrates an insightful and engaging response to the rhetorical expectations of the assignment. All papers from ENG 1000 are eligible.

There will be two prizes awarded:
$300 for first place and $200 for second place.
